Live Outside the Box - 5 Beach Houses

Richard Jones applies Form to Function

June 14th 2010. For Immediate Release.

Timeless Architecture, innovative floor plans, signature courtyards. All features in a series of Beach area homes in Delray's Hot North Beach and South Beach communities. All homes are between 2,500-4,500 sq. ft. designed with green design principles, and outdoor rooms that increase the home's liveable size. Jones says "It's a new prototype for a new era of eco-conscious savvy home buyers. They want to do more with less. The McMansion concept is long past it's prime. These homes will set a new standard of innovation, efficient living."
